

Steel Man

(coming to a Stemcor office near you)

In the film, Iron Man is the multifaceted superhero who comes to the rescue of those in need.

Back in the real world, Stemcor's role is to provide a full range of services to help the steel industry. Our capability spans every step in the steel supply chain, from the provision of raw materials to producers through to the delivery of processed steel to end-users.

Our breadth of expertise gives us a unique perspective, enabling us to offer integrated supply chain solutions that improve our partners' business performance. Whether you're a seller, buyer or project promoter, we can support you every step of the way.

When you need a global partner in steel, think 'Stemcor'. We haven't made the big screen and our feet are firmly on the ground. But we do have the power to help you.
